

Changes III Workshop

An experiential psychotherapy workshop for the treatment of disruptions of early childhood attachments and the interplay in adult intimate relationships, addiction and mental health disorders.

CHANGING LIVES
HEALING FAMILIES

About

The Changes III Workshop is offered as part of our continuing care suite of programs. This experiential workshop uses Pia Melody's trail blazing work on Love Addiction and attachment theory. The workshop incorporates group therapy, education and process work. All facilitated by our renowned, formally trained clinicians.

In a safe and compassionate environment you will get the opportunity to explore the impact of your early childhood attachments and/or relational trauma on the development and sustainability of healthy adult relationships. You will uncover what has been holding you back from true interdependence, healthy intimacy and attachments.

Program Content

Over the course of the 5 days you will:

- Understand the development of intimacy disorders
- Address the destructive cycles of love addiction and love avoidance
- Understand your childhood and how it impacts your relationships today
- Resolve grief and anguish from past experiences
- Identify and increase awareness of your personal trauma history
- Understand the importance of boundaries in relationship with others and yourself
- Learn healthy ways of relating to others
- Learn how to re-parent yourself

Who is it for?

The program is specifically tailored to for individuals who are in recovery and are ready to do some deeper more personal work. Completion of Changes I and Changes II is highly recommended.

- When you first meet a partner do you feel as though they are too good to be true or like the person that you have always dreamed of?
- Do you feel empty and lonely when you are not in a relationship or in romantic intrigue?
- Do you ever find yourself in relationships you are unable to leave?
- Do you avoid intimacy out of fear of being smothered?
- Do you return or enter into relationships out of guilt or duty?
- Do you often attract needy people?

Cost

Most major health funds will cover the Changes III Workshop. Clients can claim via their private health fund, if sufficient hospital cover is held. Please note all funds have different rules. We accept self-funded payments.

The full cost of the program for self-funded clients is $340 per day and includes morning tea and lunch.

For more information please contact our Intake Team here and they can arrange a health fund check and determine any out-of-pocket excess or gap fees.

Program Delivery

The workshop is a 5 day intensive group running Monday through Friday from 9am – 4pm.

How to get started

Clients completing their inpatient treatment at South Pacific will be referred into the Changes III Workshop as part of the inpatient program.
